HOLLWEG DENIES STATEMENTS OF JAS. W. GERARD

Asserts Former Ambassador Gave Free Reign to Imagination

ALL UTTERANCES FALSE

BERLIN, Aug. 30—(via London, Aug. 31)—Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, the former imperial chancellor, today asserted that it was his impression that James W. Gerard, former American ambassador, in writing his revelations of Germany's war aims, gave a somewhat free rein to his imagination. The statement of the former chancellor was the result of his reading in a London newspaper Mr. Gerard's version of a conversation with him last January, in which it was alleged that Germany's peace terms were set forth.

"In his published report of this particular conversation," said Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, to the Associated Press today, "Mr. Gerard attributed utterances to me which were not my own. This applies especially ot his reference to Germany's alleged intention of seizing Liege and Namur, and of Grmany's plans to take possession of the Belgian ports and railroads and to establish military and commercial dominion of that country.

Never Unfolded War Aims

"I never unfolded such German war aims to Mr. Gerard. In the course of my several conversations with him I invariably referred to my reichstag speeches, in which I stated that Germany would exact positive guaranttes that Belgian territory and politics would not in the future be exploited as a menacing factor against us. I did not make any statement as to the nature of these guarantees.

"In the progress of our conversation Mr. Gerard suggested that the realization of far-reaching aspirations in Belgium would give King Albert merely a sham authority and asked whether it would not be better for Germany to forego such plans and instead of them endeavor to acquire Liege, which Mr. Gerard thought possible of achievement.

"Perhaps this suggestion was a bait, intended to provoke a reply from me. If so, the attempt failed.

Memory Fails Gerard.

"Mr. Gerard's memory would seem also to have served him faultily when he wrote down what was said about Russia. He dealt but superficially with Germany's eastern war aims, observing the U. S. interest in this direction was very limited and that Germany undoubtedly would have a free hand there. For Roumania and Serbia he also revealed very slight sympathy. Mr. Gerard did not otbain out of my mouth any of the statements concerning these countires which he attributees to me."

The former chancellor then observed:

"When diplomats undertake to exploit their official career for journalistic purposes they are very apt to be misled into putting into the mouths of foreign statesmen utterances which either are the creation of an ample imagination or are of an ample imagination or are based on faulty memory. Discussion of political opinions is bound to be transitory and fleeting."

The former chancellor then touched upon what he regarded as the ethics of Mr. Gerard's disclosures as compared with the European idea.

"You Americans are an impetuous people," he said. "You do not seem to permit even your retiring diplomats to observe the traditional silence, nor have you the patience to abide the post-mortem publication of their memoirs. In Europe, however, it would seem that publication of such matters, by common consent, is postponed to later periods, when judgments are both calmer and more mature. Mr. Gerard, however, may hold the special license conferred by 'shirtsleeve' diplomacy, as you call it, and I shall not dispute his prerogatives. But he must not give his imagination too free rein."

The former chancellor is now on his estate two hours by rail from Berlin.

PROSPECTS FOR LOWER BREAD PRICES VANISHED

Best Public Can Expect is Eight Cent Loaf

Price of Flour Will be Two or Three Dollars Per Barrel Cheaper According to Food Administrator—Bakers' Flour Not Much Lower

Washington, August 31—Prospects of an early and radical reduction in bread prices apparently vanished tonight when Herbert Hoover, the food administrator, announced that he best the public may expect is a sixteen ounce loaf for ten cents or possibly eight cents. The eight cent loaf of sixteen ounces is possible, Mr. Hoover said, only if bakers, retailers and consumers unite to eliminate wasteful distribution methods and co-operate to obtain a standardized loaf.

The price of flour, however, Mr. Hoover said, should be reduced at the present price of wheat at least two or three dollars a barrel. Bakers' flour, however, will sell little cheaper than at present.

Slight Reduction

C. I. Corby, who is serving for the bakers of the country as a voluntary aide to Mr. Hoover, said tonight that a sixteen ounce loaf for ten cents would represent a slight reduction in present prices. No move will be made towards price reduction, he said, until the food administration has announced its plans for dealing with the baking industry. It may be a month before the program is ready, it was learned tonight.

"The bakers respectfully request the public to disregard the many ridiculous statements about bread," Mr. Corby said, "emanating from unreliable sources and ask that they await the announcement of the president relatives to the nation's plans for bread production."

Members of the wheat price committee which recommended the price $2.20 fixed by President Wilson for wheat have declared that the committee was convinced it was possible to make and sell a fourteen ounce loaf of bread for five cents.

Has No Control of Prices

Mr. Hoover made it clear that under the food control act, except in isolated instances, the food administrator has no control of prices from the time flour reacnes the wholesaler until it is sold by bakers and retailers as bread. A price reduction can be accomplished only by voluntary action by bakers and retailers and by the assistance of the public in eliminating waste.

"It may be possible, declared Mr. Hoover, "to reduce the cost of bread by about two cents per loaf if cooperation of the bakers, consumers and retailers can be effected to secure a standardized loaf and if wasteful methods which have grown up out of competitive conditions can be eliminated and with a reduction in credit and delivery can be brought about."

The wheat corporation, organized under the food administration to purchase wheat for the government and for the allies, will start operations tomorrow, altho it actually will do little business, it was said today, before September 10.

PASTOR REPUDIATES ALLEGED CONFESSION

LOGAN, Ia., Aug. 31.—The Rev. Lynn George J. Kelly, who is reported to have made a confession in connection with the Villisca, Ia., axe murders, today repudiated the alleged confession in a statement to his attorney, A. L. Sutton, of Omaha.

The alleged confession was said to have been made in the presence of the sheriff and deputies here early today in the jail where Kelly has been imprisoned charged with complicity in the axe murders.

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 31.—H. M. Havner, attorney general of Iowa, tonight announced that he had received verification of the report that Lynn George J. Kelly, a clergyman, had confessed to the murder of eight persons at Villisca, Ia., in 1912, in connection with which he has been under indictment since last spring.

TAKING INVENTORY OF FOOD SUPPLY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—A volunteer army made up of ten thousand American housewives, three hundred and fifty thousand merchants and thirty-fve thousand farmers, is today engaged in taking an inventory of the nation's food supplies. They are taking stock of the food they have on hand, in the pantry and preserve closet, on the shelves and under the counter, in warehouse and grain elevator, and in barns and bins on the farm.

From the quantities reported by these, the bureau of markets will estimate the total food stocks of the nation.

SECOND LIBERTY LOAN CAMPAIGN STARTS SEPT. 1

Subscription Books To Close November 1

Amount, Interest Rate, Denominations of Bonds and Other Details will Be Announced Later—Offering Will Probably Be $3,000,000,000.

Washington, Aug. 31.—The opening of the next Liberty Loan campaign has been set tentatively by the treasury department for October 1. Subscription books will close November 1, unless the program is altered.

The amount, the interest rate, the denominations of the bonds and other details will be announced after congress disposes of the pending bond bill.

Indications are that the next offering will approximate $3,000,000,000. Whether it will be advertised by the government thru paid newspaper space is under consideration, but Secretary McAdoo said tonight the cost of such an undertaking would exceed the appropriation now available for the purpose. He added that there could be no action until more light had been received as to the cost of an effective advertising campaign and until congress had decided what amount will be allowed for advertising for future issues.

Under the war revenue bill, passed last April, $7,000,000 was made available for expenses of floating $5,000,000,000 in bonds and $2,000,000,000 in short term certificates of indebtedness. It is reported that about half already has been disbursed in connection with the floatation of the $2,000,000,000 Liberty bonds first offered and the certificates of indebtedness put out in advance of the loan.

In announcing the tentative program for the second campaign Mr. McAdoo appealed to Liberty Loan committees to perfect their organizations and prepare for the next campaign by getting in touch with the various federal reserve banks.

CONSTRUCT NINE LOCOMOTIVE DAILY

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 31.—Nine locomotives a day is the new record of manufacture achieved this week by the Baldwin Locomotive Works. The company is devoting the entire capacity of its engine building plants to turning out locomotives of the large type, most of them for war use and 25,000 men are employed.

All locomotive buildings records have been broken by the achievements of the past few weeks. Only two years ago the concern pointed with pride to its record of thirty locomotives a month. In the next few months going at the present rate it is expected that more than 225 a month will be turned out. These are all large engines of the complicated type.

The company began its speeding late in July when it started its contract to furnish 150 locomotives to the government for use in France. Each weighs 275,000 pounds and costs $43,000.

NATIONAL FEDERATION OF SHIPPERS ORGANIZED

Representatives of a Combined Membership of 1,500,000 Met in Chicago and Completed Organization

Chicago, Aug. 31—Representatives of more than fifty shipping associations with a combined membership of 1,500,000 met here today and organized the National Federation of Shippers. The principal object of the federation is to resist efforts of the carriers to obtain a fifteen per cent raise in freight rates. These officers were elected:

President—Henry C. Wallace, Des Moines, Ia.

First vice president—Robert L. Welch, Kansas City, Mo.

Secretary—Millard R. Myers, Chicago, Ill.

Treasurer—H. W. Danforty, St. Louis, Mo.

One director will be named for each of the associations comprising the federation. Resolutions adopted commended the interstate commerce commission for its exhaustive hearing of both sides at the hearings of the roads' petition for an advance, some months ago; condemned the alleged efforts of the railroads to secure a fifteen per cent advance; and protested to the interstate commerce commission against further hearing of the subject during the period of the war.

OIL TANK CARS DESTROYED BY FIRE

CHICAGO, Aug. 31—Fire starting from a hot box had consumed ten or twelve oil tank cars of a special train of forty cars bound for Chicago on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad at noon today, according to reports received at the road's offices here.

The train caught fire two miles from Sommonauk, Ill. The intense heat twisted the track, blocking traffic, and also destroyed telegraph communication. Details therefore were lacking. Officials believed, however, that twenty eight cars had been saved.

HOLD CHILD LABOR LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Decision Given by Judge Boyd of North Carolina

Case Will Be Taken To Supreme Court of United States for Adjudication—Decree Only Affects North Carolina Western District.

Greensboro, N. C., Aug. 31.—Federal Judge Boyd, of the western district of North Carolina, today held the Keating-Owen child labor law unconstitutional and enjoined the U. S. District attorney, William C. Hammer and his successors, assistants, deputies and agents from enforcing in the district the provision of the act of congress which becomes effective tomorrow.

The decision came at the conclusion of three days of argument on the constitutionality of the act. The case came before the court on injunction proceedings brought in the name of Roland H. Dagendhart and his minor sons, Reuben and John, Charlotte, who sought to restrain a Charlotte cotton mill company from discharging the two boys.

"Congress," he said, "can regulate trade among the states, but not the internal conditions of labor."

The case will be taken to the supreme court of the United States and persons here tonight interested in the law say that special haste will be made in its presentation on appeal to the highest court for adjudication.

Merely a Test Case.

Washington, Aug. 31.—Federal officials regard the decision of Judge Boyd holding the child labor law unconstitutional merely as a vehicle for getting the question before the supreme court, a test case having been expected.

The law becomes effective tomorrow and the decree at Greensboro affects only the North Carolina district. Except where the courts interfere it will be enforced.

"Under the statute's provisions, no child under 14 may be employed in any factory, mill, workshop or cannery whose products are shipped in interstate commerce, and no child under 16 may work in any mine or quarry. Children under 15 are not permitted to work longer than eight hours a day."

ROAD TO FRANCE OPEN FOR JUNIOR OFFICERS

ROCKFORD, Ill., Aug. 31.—The road to France opened straight ahead for two hundred junior officers in the quartermasters' corps when it was announced today that no preliminary instruction school is to be held for them in Camp Grant. A designation of rank will be given to them at once, and they will be dstributed in various commands in all branches of the service, instead of remaining in the training camp as first planned. Many will thus gain over-seas service with the first troop consignment.

Illinois juniors today scrambled for places in the officers' detail to be sent to Fort Worth, Texas, on National Guard duty. Two hundred openings in the detail will be filled by volunteers here eager to get into active service with the seasoned troops at once.

COMMITTEE REPORT ON WAR BOND ACCEPTED

Measure in Same Form As Written By McAdoo

Republicans of House Renew Fight for Creation of a Congressional War Expenditure to Co-operate With President

Washington, Aug. 31—Coincident with the voting of a favorable report by the ways and means committee today on the $11,538,945,450 war bond and certificate bill in virtually the form Secretary McAdoo wrote it, republican leaders in the house announced they would renew their fight for the creation of a congressional war expenditures committee.

The proposed expenditures committee amendment was voted down along party lines in committee, but several democrats expressed their approval of it and republicans were hopeful tonight that when it reaches the floor some democratic support will develop.

An effort has been made in drafting the amendment to meet the objection of President Wilson that a similar provision proposed during the food control bill debate would embarrass him in the conduct of the war.

Instead of authorizing a committee to "study problems arising from the war" like the former proposal, the new draft would provide for a committee "to co-operate with the president in promoting eficiency and preventing waste and extravagance in the conduct of the war."

Another provision designed to forestall charges that the move is political would permit seven democrats and six republicans to compose the committee personnel. The committee would be given an initial appropriation of $100,000.

Republicans also will seek to amend in the house a provision of the bill making the $7,538,945,460 of bonds authorized convertible at possible higher interest rates later, and another to permit the expenditure of approximately $20,000,000 in floating the issues. They voted for these provisions today to make the report unanimous but reserved the right to offer amendments later.

The convertibility proposal will cause a hard fight and some democrats may join with republicans in it. Contention is made by opponents of the plan that if some limit is not placed on the convertibility of bonds the government soon will be paying a wholly unwarranted rate of interest for loans.

VALUABLE INFORMATION GIVEN OFFICERS

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—Edward Taylor, arrested as he came from the cottage where Edward Wheed was beseiged by hundreds of policemen for four hours yesterday, gave the authorities valuable information tonight clearing up robberies and murders in the last two years, the police said. He also aided them in their search for the men sought in connection with the murder and robbery of two pay messengers in front of a west side factory last Tuesday.

Taylor told how Edward Wheed, who shot and wounded three detectives before he surrendered during the gun fight with hundreds of policemen yesterday, organized and led the band thru many deeds of outlawry; how the money was divided; and made known how a $50,000 robbery was to have been committed tomorrow as the master stroke of the robber band.

HONOR MAJOR GENERAL WOOD AT FORT RILEY

FORT RILEY, Kan., Aug. 31.—It is not impossible that from two and one-half to four million American soldiers will be fighting on battlefields of France before the war is won, Major General Leonard E. Wood, who is to be in command at Camp Houston, declared here tonight at a reception given in his honor.

General Wood said universal service is the only sure guarantee for a lasting democracy, and urged the civilian population to give its utmost support to the Red Cross and the Y. M. C. A., to grow large crops and economize in every way to help win the war.

VOTE ON SECTION OF WAR TAX MEASURE TODAY

Abandonment of Cloture Plans Moves Bill Along Rapidly

MANY SPEECHES MADE

Washington, Aug. 31.—Voting probably will begin in the senate tomorrow on the war profits section of the war tax bill.

The situation clarified so rapidly following yesterday's abandonment of cloture plans and agreement for final disposition of the measure that just befort suspending today all was ready to vote on the first of the amendments to the war profits section—the proposal of Senator Johnson, California, providing a gross levy of eighty per cent. Absence of a score of senators, not expecting that voting would begin so early, prevented an immediate test of strength.

Senator La Follette expects to make tomororw a lengthy speech but Senator Borah, a leader of the group demanding higher taxation, said tonight this would not interfere with prompt action on the Johnson amendments.

Divide Day's Debate

Spokesmen for those favoring and opposing higher profits rates divided today's debate. Senators Harding and Smoot urged retention of the finance committee's provision while Senators Hollis and Gronna urged much greater levies. The attendance generally was small with but a half a dozen senators remaining on the floor at times.

Senators Harding and Smoot warned that much higher taxation of war profits probably would result seriously to business. Senators Hollis and Gronna contended that the bulk of the war's expenses should be obtained from war profits. Senator Hollis opposed consumption taxes proposed and insisted that the bill be increased to $3,000,000,000 by levying upon war profits.

Ready to Take all Profits

"I am ready to take practically all war profits," he declared. "They are a trust fund in the hands of those that make them and the government should have no compunction in reaching out and taking them."

By a strategic move the senators making the fight for a higher rate on war profits got Senator Johnson's amendment placed in position for the first vote. Both sides expressed confidence tonight, but the plan of the high tax group is to offer Senator Johnson's maximum levy provision first and if that is defeated, to follow with other propositions to secure acceptance of the highest possible rate.

SEIZE RECORDS OF COAL OPERATORS

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 31—Records by the use of which coal operators of Kansas City are charged to have controlled the price and output of coal mined in Kansas and sold in this city were seized today by a deputy acting under an authorization issued by John T. Gose, assistant attorney-geenral of Missouri, who is conducting a coal investigation here for the state.

Suffragists who were in Jacksonville yesterday believe with President Wilson that "The world must be made safe for democracy." However they declare that true democracy is not made up of men alone and that the rights of men and women must be equal before the ideals of democracy are realized.

COUNTY AGENTS WILL BE SCARCE.

Another reason why Morgan county agricultural leaders should take early steps to co-operate with the agricultural department at Washington and secure a county agent as provided by the new law, is because of the scarcity there will be of capable county agents. Wallace's Farmer comments on this fact and says that the secretary of agriculture has a real job on his hands in attempting to provide all agricultural districts with competent agents. This paper says that the county agent must not only have a very thoro knowledge of agriculture but he must know how to use this knowledge in such a way that others are willing to profit by it. "There is not an over-supply of such men just now."

THE MISSOURI SENATORS.

It is said that Senator Stone's explanation of his attitude on the war has not been at all satisfactory to many of his constituents in Missouri. There have been public meetings in a number of rural precincts where resolutions have been passed asking both Senator Stone and Senator Reed to resign from the senate and let the state be represented by men who more nearly reflect the sentiment of Missourians. The Globe-Democrat, however,, a paper that has had frequent occasion to criticise Senator Stone, gives him credit for not having attempted to block war legislation, altho he has made known his opposition to the war. The principal offense of Senator Stone, as the Globe-Democrat sees it, is his failure to resign the chairmanship of the senate committee on foreign relations. Since the senator is wholly out of accord with the present policy of the U. S. such resignation is certainly the only reasonable course.

MUNICIPAL POTATO BUYING.

The proposal of some food enthusiasts for the city of Chicago to buy a million bushels of potatoes and retail them to consumers has been knocked out by corporation counsel opinion. The suggestion was that this immense supply of potatoes should be purchased at a price of about $1.50 a bushel. Potato crop figures do not warrant any municipal action in the endeavor to provide people with potatoes at reasonable prices. This year the crop estimate is 467,000,000, bushels, which is 100,000,000 bushels above the average. This means that the year shows nearly one bushel extra for every man, woman and child in the country by comparison with 1916.

Evidently there is no potato shortage this year and certainly the prices should not be out of reason. If commission men attempt to control the crop the same government hand that reached out and wrote on the public blackboard the prices that may be charged for coal and wheat, will again be busy.

THE NAVY LEAGUE AND MR. DANIELS.

Undoubtedly Secretary Daniels' order forbidding any representative of the Navy League to visit any naval station and his declaration that supplies from the league would not be received while the present officers are serving, were entirely too drastic and were wholly un-American. The secretary by this time should certainly be accustomed to criticism and should be able to stand it without the manifestation of so much feeling. Nevertheless the Navy League has now gone on record with a public apology to the secretary, declaring that the statement was unwarranted that the investigation of the Mare Island explosion was being hampered by the navy department because of the influence of powerful labor interests.

This controversy seems to have been a case in which both parties were too hasty and too bitter.

TITLES NOT POPULAR.

The people of this county generally admit the splendid service performed by Mr. Gerard while serving as ambassador at Berlin. The American lived in some of the most strenuous times in world history and performed difficult duties of statesmanship which reflected honor upon him and his country. Nevertheless, a bill introduced by Senator Overman at Washington will find favor. This bill would prohibit any citizen of the U. S. from accepting any present, office or title from any king or foreign government. The bill is really proposed to prevent the former ambassador from accepting the Order of the Band, with the honor of a sir knight, recently conferred by King George. In these days when the words "autocracy," "democracy," "royalty," and "the people" are so much used, it seems particularly inappropriate to confer a foreign title upon an American citizen. If the ideals of the leaders of democracy are attained the day will come when it will not be a distinction or an honor to have a degree that has been conferred by royalty.

ILLINOIS HISTORIANS OFFEND.

There was some good reason for the action taken in Chicago whereby pages lauding the kaiser were taken from school books, but the statement can hardly be made with reference to the proposal to eliminate uncomplimentary references to Irishmen in an edition of "Illinois in 1818," a book published for circulation among state officials, libraries and universities. The offending paragraph sets forth that the situation in Illinois was similar to that in Missouri, described by John Mason Peck, a Baptist missionary, who wrote, "Not a few drunken, profane, worthless Irishmen were perambulating the country and getting up schools; and yet they could neither speak, read, pronounce, spell or write the English language."

The laudatory statements about the kaiser were offensive because the nation is at war and recent events in history have proven the falsity of the earlier estimates of the kaiser's worth. But the lines quoted from the Illinois history refer to a period of a hundred years ago, without reference to any individuals, and the citizens who now take offence about a statement so far antedating even their immediate ancestors certainly have "a chip on the shoulder"

"NO WHITE FLAG"

The London Observer under the general editorial heading No White Flag has the following about war aims and the Stockholm conference:

We hope our own Prime Minister will take the initiative at once and will succeed in inducing all the League of Liberty, including the United States as well as M. Kerensky's government, to declare that there can be no negotiation whatever until absolute and unconditional withdrawal from the territories invaded by the enemy is assured, and that there can be no peace until reparation, restitution, and guarantees are actually obtained and accomplished. If M. Kerensky's consent and President Wilson's can be secured promptly to a common formula framing this purport, whatever words may be chosen, the bottom will be knocked out of the hopes that German militarism and its Majority Socialists are resting on the Stockholm Conference.

The war is hideous. None longs more than we do to see it ended on terms which would not be a betrayal of the dead, the living, and the future. But the Stockholm Conference is not the way to a right peace. To act without preliminary agreement amongst the Allies as a whole, and, above all, with the United States, is not the way to secure the future. It is for Mr. Lloyd George to grasp his nettle. It had better be done sooner than later. We do not doubt him or his colleagues. There is no refuge but in his unhesitating courage, in his power of appeal to public opinion and to labor itself, in his ability to make plain to the other Allied Administrations how much depends now for democracy and freedom on the reassertion of the unity of the Allies and the responsibility of their Governments. In concert with President Wilson and M. Kerensky, if possible, let him face this mischief before it goes far enough to ruin the moral vigour and cohesion of the Allies, the firm conduct of the war, and every prospect for this country in the war and after.

THE NEW CHILD LABOR LAW.

The finding of Judge Boyd of the western district of North Carolina that the child labor law which is to go into effect today is unconstitutional need not be alarming to friends and advocates of this fine piece of legislation. The federal law providing that minerals from mines or quarries in which children under 16 were employed, or products of mills and workshops employing children under 14, may not be admitted to interstate or foreign commerce was strongly opposed by the southern states. There are many factories located in those states which had gained commercial prosperity largely from the labor of children. The decision of the North Carolina judge was no doubt influenced somewhat by public sentiment in his state, but aside from that fact an opinion is welcomed by both those in favor and those opposed to the law, so that some court action may be speedily had.

Judging by the action of the supreme court with reference to legislation involving practically the same legal points as this child labor law, the supreme court finding will be favorable. The child labor law, which is known as the Keating-Owen law, is regarded as one of the most important statutes placed upon the national law books in recent years. Child labor in the factories of America has been a blot upon our boasted national civilization.

It is estimated that 27,023 children under 14 years of age will now be released from manufacturing plants and 17,667 from mines and quarries. The condition of still other thousands will be improved by the provision limiting the hours of employment for children. The release from these lines of work is not all that is necessary to improve the condition of children, for there must be follow up methods of compulsory education in all the states. To release the children from factories and mines and then permit them to be idle would not improve their condition. An effort was made to postpone the operation of this law until after the war but experiences of England, France, Canada, Australia and New Zealand gave proof that industrial efficiency was not promoted by breaking down labor standards. In the countries mentioned since the war began the labor standards have been advanced instead of being allowed to deteriorate.

The Fat Patriot

I climb amountan ten miles high, three times a day I do it; and when I've weighed myself, I sigh, "I lose no heft, beshrew it!" I hoped to make myself so thin, much exercise assisting, the corporal would let me in, when I attempt enlisting. I ply the dumbbells and the clubs, and live on frugal ration, with other patriotic dubs who wish to save the nation. I see the thin man going by, and envy him his figure; "A shapely gent like that," I sigh, "can swat the foe with vigor. He isn't loaded down with fat, and he can climb a German, and dent his head or break a slat, and leave him dead or squirmin." I hail the thin man and I ask if he is not delighted that he's in shape for gory task, for chasing Huns affrighted. "I'm on my way," he makes reply, "to file exemption papers; I've no desire to bleed and die, or cut up martial capers. The hero's wreath I do not court, I would not slay by dozens; besides, I am the sole support of nineteen bedfast cousins." It seems the irony of fate that men who yearn for battle, barred out because of surplus weight, must stay and feed the cattle; while men who have the proper shape are fixing up a story that may assist them to escape the path that leads to glory.

Miss Westover was formerly employed in the office of F. J. Waddell & Co. and her work at all times has given satisfaction. She left for Springfield to assume her new duties Friday afternoon.

ELKHORN IS THRIFTY AND PROSPEROUS COMMUNITY

Farms in That Neighborhood Give Every Indication of Good Management—Complete Write-up of Region Not Attempted.

If anybody wants a pleasing variety of scenery and landscape Morgan county will surely supply it. Go eastward and the broad prairies stretch out for many miles, land that our forefathers thought would never be worth anything because it was so wet, but they didn't know what cultivation and tiling would do for a community. This is now some of the choicest of the county and highly valued for its fine crops and depth of soil. But that isn't the only variety of land and landscape the county can show for if the traveler will turn his steps and vision southward he will see there something very different from the broad, level prairies of some parts of the county and yet the farmers in those regions show as many evidences of thrift and success as their brothers on the more level parts of the commonwealth.

Anybody who likes the woods, hills and vales of a community will be well accommodated in the region of Buckhorn but Buckhorn has no sole claim to any such beauty and utility by any means for if one will travel on to the south he will run into the Elkhorn neighborhood and there he will find some fine scenery, thrifty farmers and sleek looking stock.

It was to that neighborhood a Journal reporter turned his way recently and had a very pleasant ride and interview with two of the wide awake citizens of that vicinity. A few of the residences passed will be named though of course nothing like a complete write-up of the comunity is attempted.

One of the first places noted is that of Thomas O'Connell, a well to do farmer who has for neighbors two bachelors, Patrick and James Ring. Why they have not taken to themselves partners for life is nobody's business but theirs. They are good citizens. Then James Quinn lives on Miss Nellie O'Donnell's place and takes good care of it too from appearances. Miss O'Connell has 108 acres which she has mostly in grass as she means to build it up after considerable cropping. Her niece and William Morrissey live with her and see that all goes well.

Good Farming in vidence

Turn around a corner and you come to a handsome residence among large shade trees with every evidence of thrift and good farming. That is the pleasant home of Mrs. Stephen Conlon and if you think there is any shortage of help either in the house or out of it just take a census and you will see. In the house are Mary and Maggie, dutiful daughters. The father died twelve years ago but left the home in good shape. Then go about the farm and you will come across Nicholas, John and Thomas, all stalwart men of exceptionally good habits, and all five children are at home, heart whole and fancy free. Probably no one has wanted to leave home for fear the rest might not take the best of care of mother, though of course the reporter asked no questions for he remembered that a man made a fortune once minding his own business.

Strive For Balanced Ration

The parents settled on the place more than fifty years ago and left the family the heritage of a good name and a farm with which to begin life. They have kept on till they have a neat little garden patch of 240 acres and may add some to it yet as they are enterprising men. Cattle and hogs are their strong hold and they try to have the best. For hogs they prefer the old, reliable Poland China and make a good thing with them. They endeavor to have their hogs large limbed and sturdy, careful to avoid inbreeding and see to it that the creatures are well cared for. They believe that it takes something more than a scoop shovel and a corncrib to make fat hogs and strive to have a balanced ration. They mix quite a lot of tankage along with their corn and for pigs and breeding sows use slop, oil meal and shorts.

They have individual pens or houses where they put the brood sows with small pigs and move them about as they see fit. The pigs are weaned from six to nine weeks according to circumstances. Much care is taken of the sows at the time of farrowing, careful feeding, light at first and more solid later on. After the pigs are weaned they are gradually taught to eat sold food and clover pasture, tankage and corn and make good hogs. They are generally marketed at 7 to 8 or nine months of age and weigh 225 to 250 pounds. They like the stock Bert Way breeds and also get boars from some others.

Have Had Success With Cattle

In cattle they prefer the Shorthorns and think it pays to raise some calves. They have been using a Short Horn bull but recently sold him and now have a Poll bull. They have had good success with cattle and think it will more and more pay to raise calves.

For wheat they prefer the smooth on account of the straw which is free from the troublesome beards of the hard variety and when it is fed that is quite an item and they don't believe in taking the straw from the place but feed it or have it rot and returned to the land. They rotate and are building up some land they recently bought and already it shows the evidence of intelligent handling. Small grain and clover follow corn and so the fertility of the soil is maintained. A neighbor is James Hagan, a retired wagon maker who decided to quit making vehicles for other people but use one or two for himself and he is making good.

Another neighbor is G. A. Hobbs, for years employed in the office of Harrigan Brothers as bookkeeper and is now scratching the face of his mother earth who is treating him well in return.

Just around another corner is the handsome brick house of James Begnel, son of the late William Begnel of good name. Mr. Begnel is one of the well to do farmers of that region. His father left three children, James, Margaret, Mrs. M. E. Riley who has six children; Sarah, Mrs. Thomas O'Connell, who has eight children, and James who has nine, Clara, Ida, Eugene, Louis, Thomas, Mary Leo, and Leonard, twins, and Louise. As announced, they are soon to lose Ida who is to become Mrs. Thomas McGrath in a short time.

A Fair Yield of Wheat

Mr. Begnel manages to keep busy on 320 acres of land and has boys large enough to help him materially. He is a good farmer as his place will show. He keeps up his land by changing and fertilizing all right. He prefers Poland China hogs and thinks well of individual sheds though he hasn't as many as he means to have. He separates his brood sows with small litters and succeeds well with them. He varies his hog feed and thinks well of clover pasture for the swine. He likes soft wheat which he thinks is better for his kind of land though it may not be the best for all. He will have a fair yield this year on forty acres.

For corn he uses both Reid Yellow Dent and white and raises good crops when seasons and conditions are favorable. He thinks the time has come when it will pay farmers in this region to raise calves. He weans his calves and feeds them. He likes the reliable Short Horns which are better for all purposes. A man remote from market can hardly do as well with dairy stock. They will make more butter but the calves of Jerseys are poor stock for anything but milk The Short Horn don't make quite as much butter but they pay all around.

Working on Road

Near Mr. Begnel's place they were working the road and doing a very good job. His son and four horses were his contribution to the enterprise.

J. C. Richards lives on the George Coultas place and is doing well. He does much in live stock as well as grain.

Mr. Jordan is a comparatively new neighbor who has moved to the Travis farm. Michael Connelly is a thrifty farmer a little way beyond William White does a good deal in hogs and horses and makes a success.

Of course this is not offered as a complete write-up of Elkhorn. Mr. Begnel and one of the Conlon brothers were the only ones interviewed and doubtless others would have had interesting accounts to give of themselves if the reporter had had time to ask an interview.

A similarity of names in that region is noticeable. There are O'Connell, Conlon, O'Donnell and Connelly.

RELAYING TRACK.

The Jacksonville Railway & Light company has a large force of men working on the track on Mound avenue. New ties and rail are being laid. This work is preparatory to the Mound avenue asphalt pavement. It is understood that the company will have a much larger force here in the course of a week to re-lay the West State street track.

don't gamble

with the prosperity of your community on the long chance of making a few dollars yourself. Don't send away for merchandise which you may be able to buy a few cents cheaper than the home merchant can sell to you.

Leaving all sentimental reasons aside—town loyalty, local pride, and so forth—it's bad business for you to spend your money outside the community in which you live. Because every cent you spend away from home makes the community that much poorer. Land values go down; streets, schools and churches grow steadily worse—you yourself in time will feel the pinch of it. And your children will feel it, too, only more than you.

Don't try to save a few cents now, and run the risk of losing a whole lot later on.

Trade with the merchants in your own community. The more you buy from them, the better can they serve you. Buy your groceries from your local grocer.

Many grocers throughout central Illinois have been selling BUNNY BRAND Pure Food Products for years. BUNNY BRAND groceries are extra standard—as good as any in their line. They are always good, year after year. They yield the grocer a fair, equitable profit. They will please you. The house that stands back of BUNNY goods stands back of the local grocer.

SEATTLE SHIPBUILDERS STRIKE NEXT WEDNESDAY

More Than 12,000 Workers Will Walk Out

General Increase in Wages Reason for Strike—Notices Served on all Firms Who Have Not Met Unions —Have Been Negotiating Six Weeks

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 31—A strike of more than 12,000 workers in Seattle Shipyards and plants engaged in fabricating shipbuilding material to enforce demands for a general increase in wages was set for next Wednesday by officers of the fifteen affiliated unions of the Seattle Metal Trades Council in executive session today.

Formal notice of the strike date was served upon all companies and firms that have not met the union demands. The ultimatum is that the demands made by the unions six weeks ago, when they gave notice of their intention to abrogate the existing blanket agreement August 1, must be met on or before next Tuesday or the workers will walk out Wednesday morning.

The wage increases asked are said to average seven per cnt in most of the trades. A $6 a day minimum for mechanics is the basis of the proposed new agreement, it was said.

Officers of the Metal Trades Council said the ultimatum was forced upon them by failure to reach an agreement after six weeks' negotiations. They further declared that for three days no word had been received from labor leaders at Washington relative to plans reported to be under consideration there for industrial peace.

TO COMPLETE WORK OF ORGANIZING POLAND

BERLIN Aug. 30.—(via London, Aug. 31.)—The foreign office today informed the Associated Press that, notwithstanding the retirement of the Polish council of state, Germany and Austria would proceed to complete the work of organizing the Polish state. The negotiations between the powers of occupation virtually had been completed and they had assigned to the recalcitrant state council an important role in the new government.

Amsterdam, Aug. 31.—The Central Powers have decided to put Polish troops in the field against the entente, according to a dispatch from Vienna received here today, the move being prompted by the vigorous allied attacks.

Negotiations between Austria-Hungary and Germany for the establishment of a Polish government, adds the dispatch are approaching a conclusion and it is expected that within a short period institutions will be established whereby the country will re-enter the list of independent states.

The Polish troops referred to are doubtless those raised in Russian-Poland after it had been conquered by the central powers.

FARM HAND KILLED BY TRAIN

KANKAKEE, Aug. 31—Bain Trobridge, 30 years old, of Murphysboro, employed on the farm of Clair Bay, near Otto, was killed by a fast train on the Illinois Central railroad today. He was watching a freight train that had passed and drove in front of the express train. The horses he was driving were mangled and he was dragged to the reins to which he clung for some distance.

WAR NEWS SUMMARIZED

Having failed in all their direct attacks by land to break the Russian front and capture Riga, Russia's principal naval base and arsenal on the Baltic, the possibility that the Germans are now preparing for an offensive by land and sea is forecast in the manouvers of their torpedo boat destroyers, submarine and mine sweeping trawlers in adjacent waters and in aerial atacks in the Gulf of Riga itself.

Forty airplanes of the enemy have winged their flight over the waters of the gulf dropping bombs. Ninety of these missiles were loosed Thursday upon Russian warships and harbor works and raids also were carried out against islands in the gulf. What damage, if any, resulted, is not stated in the Russian official communication.

Neither the Russian nor Berlin war office has announced the recommencement of infantry activity in the marshy district west of Riga where recently the Germans made advances, altho Berlin says that northwest of Dvinsky the Russians have taken the offensive and are carrying out raiding operations. The situation on the other sectors of the Russia front has not changed materially.

The Italians are still making gains on the Bainsizza plateau north of Gorizia and also have renewed their offensive to the south on the Carso plateau. More than 600 additional Austrian prisoners and five machine guns have been captured in the Bainsizza region. South of this region o nthe dominating peak of Montesan Gabriele, more ground has been taken. On the Carso plateau the big Caproni airplanes are aiding in the attack.

Aside from artillery duels, which are violent at various points along the front held by the British and French troops in Belgium and France only minor operations are taking place. There has been a return of heavy fighting on several sectors of the front in Macedonia, where the French have repulsed Bulgarian attacks in the region of Srka di Legen and west of Monastir.

PACIFISTS NOT DECIDED ON MEETING PLACE

Will Endeavor To Choose City Today

Delegates Meet Many Difficulties Everywhere They Go—May Hold Convention in Shadow of Nation's Capitol at Washington

BULLETIN

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 31—Governor Philipp tonight wired Sheriff McManus that should delegates of the People's Council of America for Democracy and peace arrive in Milwaukee they should be informed that it was his wish that no meeting be held. The sheriff was told to "telephone for instructions" after this was done.

Chicago, Aug. 31—Five members of the sub-committee of the People's Council of America for Democracy and Peace considering a place for holding their meeting announced tonight that despite any announcement from Morris Hillquit, the committee would make no decision tonight but would choose a place for the meeting tomorrow morning. Miss Crystal Eastman and A. W. Ricker stated they hoped a vote would be in favor of going to Minneapolis. Miss Eastman pointed out that Mr. Hillquit was only one member of the committee.

They were permitted to meet in mezzanine floor of the hotel while the communications committee adjourned and waited for Mr. Lochner to arrive.

The delegates once gathered chose Mrs. Julia S. Poyntz as chairman and after several suggestions as to the future course adjourned for something to eat.

On the train a petition was circulated to go to Minneapolis regardless of the opposition of the Minnesota governor. It obtained a few signatures and disappeared somewhere. Those back of the petition asserted their courage had been challenged and for that reason if for no other they should proceed to Minneapolis. Others insisted that no action should be taken without hearing from Mr. Lochner and somewhere in the discussion the petition disappeared.

Milwaukee or Chicago

Minneapolis, Aug. 31—The People's Council of America for Democracy and Peace will attempt to obtain protection for its proposed national peace conference in either Milwaukee or Chicago, preferably the latter, and failing, will bring the delegates together in the shadow of the nation's capitol at Washington, according to conflicting statements by leaders after a conference late today.

While delegates straggled in from the west and a special train carrying eastern delegates drew toward Chcago leaders in the movement to hold the first peace conference of national color since America entered the war struggled for hours behind closed doors over the question of a convention city.

CASE DISMISSED.

Charles DeSilva Friday went before Justice Dyer and dismissed the case against Gerge Stoldt and W. B. It seems that Mr. DeSilva swore out the papers somewhat hastily after some minor differences with Mr. Stoldt and Mr. Francis about the cucumbers and subsequently the whole matter was cleared up to the satisfaction of all parties concerned. In the notice of the affair yesterday it was mentioned that Mr. Stoldt and Mr. Francis are both citizens of established reputation and that the action taken by the complainant was unusual.

STUDENTS WRITE ABOUT SERVICE WITH MARINES

Letters from Three Former Illinois College Men Received by Dr. Hayden—Work on Rifle Range Interesting Part of Training

As previously mentioned, Dr. F. S. Hayden, dean of the faculty of Illinois college, is keeping in close touch with college students who are enlisted for war service. Dr. Hayden writes frequent letters to these young men and is sending them both letters and papers. Below are given letters from three of these student soldiers who are with the U. S. marines in training for expected duty abroad.

United States Marines, Aug. 30 1917

Dr. Hayden,

Dear Sir:

The papers you sent were a great pleasure—doubly so because they gave accounts of Illinois men. It is indeed gratifying to know that so many from Illinois are doing their part for the nation. All of us here were very much interested in the Illinois College men who received commissions at Fort Sheridan. We are proud to know that our Coach has been made Captain and there isn't one of us who wouldn't be pleased to place our lives under his control and care.

We are counting on a furlough about Sept. 10 and all of us are hoping College will be in full sway again. Naturally we want to get back when everything is buzzing with life.

I know the rest of the fellows have told you the news and history etc. of the Post but the strangest incident of all happened this morning which reminded me of College. Around the bunkhouse a few blades of grass struggle to keep above ground. This morning we were ordered to fall out with the little scissors from our kits and cut each blade of grass. It wasn't done because work was scarce, either.

In a few days the majority of the Illinois men will be attempting to win laurels on the rifle range, and from the way they have been shooting in preliminary practice we are sure to have a few experts. Thanking you once more for the papers and the letters to mother, I am

Yours sincerely,
Private Ray J. Riefler.

Marine Barracks, Paris Island, S. C.
Sunday, August 26.

Dr. F. S. Hayden,

Dear Sir:

This is the first Sunday that I have had nothing to do since my arrival on Paris Island and I am taking advantage of it and have been writing letters all day long.

They usually have the rohows carrying oyster shells or crushed rock on Sundays to fix the roads but my company is on the rifle range now and I suppose that is how we escaped.

The work on the range is the most interesting part of our training here and it lasts for about three weeks. Each individual shoots for record the last day and is awarded a medal if he qualifies as expert rifleman, sharp-shooter, or marksman. He also gets a small increase in salary. Frisbie, Wilson and Riefler finished the range last Friday and they all ranked as marksman. I certainly was tickled and surprised a couple of weeks ago when our sergeant offered me the position of acting corporal which I gladly accepted. I have been recommended for corporal and will take the examination in about two weeks. The only advantages I see just now in being acting corporal are that I am to eat at the non-commissioned officers' table and instead of working myself, I just watch the other fellows work. Thank you very kindly for the papers you sent, for I enjoyed reading the letters from the other college boys who are in the service and am glad they are satisfied. Yet I can't see how anyone in military service could be dissatisfied when our country is in such a crisis as it is at the present time. Hoping that I will be with you again at "Old Illinois," as soon as we capture the Kaiser, I am,

Yours very truly,
E. J. Lukeman.

Marine Baracks,
Saturday morning,
Aug. 18, 1917.

Dear Dean Hayden:

This is the first time in two weeks that I've had a spare moment and the inclination to write both at once. I'm to be corporal of the guard today from 2 to 6 so I managed to elude anything bordering on work this morning. In order to be safe from demands I came away dawn here to the "Y." to write. This building was only opened about a week ago and is certainly a popular place and a big help. This camp is divided into two sections and there's a "Y." building for each section. I'm writing this in the building nearest Wilson's and Apple's squad rooms. There is, oftentimes, not room to write in either building at night. There are a hundred or more fellows in this room right now, altho mornings are the busiest times in camp. There's plenty of life and bustle in camp here. Hours, or days never drag. The officers in charge are always able to keep one busy on our work days. So far "96" has been pretty ducky as we've drilled most of the time here. The life here is thoroly agreeable to me. I'm thriving on it. I got a clipping from the "Courier," saying that I had written that "the work here was great stuff when one gets used to it." That's wrong—one doesn't "get used" to work because he never does the same thing twice.

The letters you've sent us in Jacksonville papers are certainly welcome. That's a fine thing to do as we're all anxious to keep in touch with one another. As you probably know the Illinois "bunch" is all here in this training camp now. We see one another quite often. "Oozle" and I are together two or three times a week. We are only a few weeks apart in our training so we stand a good chance of being sent from the Island together. Oozle, Fris., and Rief. went on the range a week ago Monday, Aug. 6. Apple, Pierce and Ray Wilson last Monday, Aug. 13, Luke, and I go this Monday, Aug. 20. Decker finished his training yesterday, and is ready to be shipped away. Some companies get away as soon as they have finished training, others are held a week or more. One is a real marine after he finishes the range for that ends his recruit training. We all manage to keep cheerful and happy here tho we're off the mainland and don't see much civilization. Our mail comes every day just after supper, and that's about the best, most exciting time of the day. Elmer has been made an acting corporal now and does the "Hup-2-3-4" for us when we're marching. He has taken a bunch of pictures of our camp here and will probably send you some when he writes. It seems that most of the fellows have trouble finding time to write much. That's our predicament. We enjoy the papers and letters from Jacksonville just more than you can imagine, even tho we haven't time to thank you each time. I miss not being in the college tent during chautauqua but there are other things to be done now! We're anxious to learn all about training camp and the draft. If as many are drafted as enlisted back to school. Thanks again for the newspapers.

Ever sincerely,
Wm. Berryman.

BAD DIGESTION DULLS THE BRAIN

There are many people today who are making the simple history of every-day life, who could be of much more importance in their own little circle if they did not suffer from indigestion.

Dyspepsia racks the body and the nerves. It lessens the capacity for work.

Indigestion is not incurable; why suffer from it; it merely requires care; attention to the food taken for a time, the right remedy and patience to entirely get over dyspeptic attacks.

Telegram to Local Exemption Board Indicates This Order Will Be Given —Eighty-Two Men Will Receive Notice To Be Ready for Service.

As will be seen from the list in another column, the district board has certified to the local board of Morgan county eighty-two men who have been selected for military service. Many of these men had made no claims for exemption and in other instances the claims were disallowed by the district board. Chairman Weir of the local board is preparing to send out the cards of notification to these men.

Paragraphs from the card read as follows:

"You will therefore hold yourself in readiness to report for military duty at the office of this local board at a time to be specified by notice posted at the office of this board in the near future. Notice will also be mailed you, but the posting of notice at the office of the board will charge you with the obligation to report. From the date so specified for you to report you will be in the military service of the United States and subject to military law.

While as much time as possible will be allowed you, you are hereby cautioned that the necessities of the service may require you to be called on very short notice. You should therefore put your affairs in order to report upon 24 hours' notice.''

The board yesterday received a telegram from the adjutant general indicating that the first five per cent of soldiers will be moved in one body, altho definite order was not given to that effect. The telegram referred to was as follows:

May Move First Troops Sept. 5.
Miller Weir,
Exemption Board Morgan Co.
Jacksonville, Ill.

Previous instruction from the provost marsal general transmitted to you from this department were to delay movement of the first five per cent of your quota. This department has asked fo rauthority to send the five per cent at one time, contingent upon the conclusion of the American Railways association that the first five per cent could be moved in one body on September 5 without congestion. You will be advised immediately upon receipt of ruling from the provost marshal general. Whether the five per cent contingent move on one day or on a series of days, the exact routing will be advised you when received from the representative of the American Railways association.

Dickson, Adjutant General.

The local board is therefore considering the matter of selecting six or seven men who will probably leave for Camp Taylor Wednesday, Sept. 5. The department has asked local boards to select men for this first quota who have knowledge which will be of value in preparing for the coming of other men. The list of names certified and printed elsewhere indicates that few, if any, appeals from the local board findings will be allowed by the district board.

Earl N. Corwin, draftsman for the Illinois Steel Bridge company, appeared before the exemption board Friday by transfer from the local board of Montour Falls, N. Y. He was examined and discharged on account of physical disability.

The exemption claim of Samuel O. Starks, now of Kirksville, Mo., was disallowed. Starks formerly resided in Meredosia, where he was employed as a button cutter and more recently he has been working in a mine near Kirksville. He asked for exemption on the dependency of his wife and child.

The board received a statement from the local board at Red Oak, Iowa, setting forth that Everett E. Whisler had been passed by that board and certified to the district board for army service. Whisler filed no claim for exemption. He is a former student at Illinois College, having lived in Jacksonville for several years past.

VISITED ROCKFORD CAMP.

Dr. F. S. Hayden has returned to Jacksonville from Rockford where he has been for several weeks past a guest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bradford. Dr. Hayden said yesterday that business conditions are very active in Rockford now because of the building of the cantonment there. Altho the troops have not arrived there are hundreds of soldiers in the city and thousands of workmen have been added to the population since the erection of the army buildings began. Dr. Hayden from his observation believes that a better site could not have been chosen for a camp than that at Rockford for the surrounding conditions are healthful and Rockford is an unusually clean city. The people there evidently have the intention of making the stay of the soldiers at the cantonment as pleasant as possible.

J. A. Liter sold recently to Earl and Dillard Bridgman northwest of the city 67 1-2 acres of land for $225 an acre. The farm has ordinary improvements on it and is good land. The Bridgmans are some of the enterprising farmers of that part of the county and will make good use of their purchase.

In Memoriam

Dearest mother thou hast left us
And our hearts are filled with pain,
For we know our own dear mother
Will never come home to us again.

But the angels are rejoicing
In their heavenly home tonight;
There's a lamp in every window,
Trimmed and burning clear and bright.

Yes, she's watching from those windows
For the loved ones yet to come.
There no parting words are spoken
In the glorious heavenly home.

She is waiting there in heaven
For that ever helping hand
To unite us all together
And among the righteous stand.

JOHN SLOAN WRITES LETTER FROM FRANCE

Morgan County Soldier at the Front Gives Interesting Picture of Army Life.

Hereunder is given a letter from John Sloan to his mother, Mrs. Terrence Sloan of this city. Mr. Sloan has been in France for some time and the Journal published a letter from him some time ago. Mr. Sloan shows that he is a close observer and his letters contain much of interest at this time when the United States already has men in France who are likely to get into action at any time. The McNeill referred to probably is Norman McNeill of Cass county who at one time attended school in this city. The letter follows:

U. S. Army, France, Aug. 6, 1917.

Dear Mother:—

Shortly after writing you a day or two ago, I received two letters from you, one dated July 2 and the other July 10th, but I could not determine from their contents just what mail you had received from me; I am writing to you quite often, and I am just wondering if you have received all of my letters. Many of my letters were not stamped, as it was impossible for me to secure the postage. The British government, however, is carrying our mail thru its territories without postage, and it would be quite reasonable for us to feel that the American government is doing as well. Some of our mail reaches us in very good time, while a large amount of it of an earlier date is just coming to hand; packages in particular are given very poor handling, and some of them have never been received.

Soldiers Appreciate Letters

I was very glad to hear from you and to know that yourself and father and the kids are feeling well; your letters are certainly a great pleasure to me, and I look forward to them. A good letter looks like a million to the boys in this benighted land. I would like to hear from all of the folks, but it would be rather selfish of me to expect letters from them when I have not written, and the circumstances are such that I cannot do it.

I am in the best of health and working hard every day and a majority of the nights. As you undoubtedly have been informed thru the newspapers, the big Allied drive is on, which means that we are getting very little sleep at the present time; circumstances make it impossible in the great majority of cases to get our wounded in the day time, which makes it ideal for the office force to carry on with our regular duties while the sun shines, and get out and carry stretchers at night. We, of course, are only too glad to be of assistance in this capacity—it is looked upon more in the light of a pleasure than a task.

The sunshine business that I mention above is one big joke over here; we haven't seen the sun over half a dozen times since arriving in "sunny France," and hardly a day passes that it does not rain. We are just now seeing the finish of a series of downpours, which started at 2:30 A. M. on the 31st of July (my night on guard), which, of course, is not the biggest help in the world to the boys carrying stretchers; outside of this, however, we suffer very little from the deluge in a physical way, as we are equipped with good raincoats and boots and our tents are absolutely waterproof.

Athletic Sports

The Boston boys, the Canadians and Australians have some very good ball teams among them, and before the big drive started when we had a few moments to ourselves we staged some mighty good contests, and the interest and enthusiasm displayed by the respective rooters was just as great as that of any ball game you would witness at home. We have two boys in our unit, Steve Ketchel and his sparring partner; he became quite famous in the prize rings all over the world, and he staged several good exhibitions for the boys, having drawn his opopnents from among the other troops; he fights at 133 pounds, but none of his challengers have ever been good enough to make him extend himself, and the other night he fought a fellow who outweighed him by thirty-five or forty pounds; he whipped the big fellow, but was robbed of the recision, and this spoiled the fun, as Steve has refused to take part in any further contests. I know you are not clamoring for this kind of news, but there is nothing that I can tell you that would make good reading back in the States—(your newspapers will carry detailed accounts of encounters that we would not be permitted to hint of in our letters) and I merely mention the above because I am quite sure that James and Francis know Steve thru reading of his prowess in the ring. I enjoy the ball games in particular, as I haven't had an opportunity to play for the last five years; we always hate to see the good teams go up to the front lines, because they, as a general rule, come down again several men short.

I have a lot of good souvenirs, most of which are various German equipment picked up after the battles, which I would like very much to send home, but I think it would be useless to try this, as McNeil told me that he sent home one of the best collections of souvenirs that could be assembled, had the package censored, registered, etc., but it was never delivered to his folks. McNeil is the Jacksonville boy, whom I mentioned in a former letter as being with the Canadian troops.

I have a great desire to state some of the things worth while that are happening up here, but as I can't there is nothing for me to do but close for the present, and with love to all, I am

As always,

WOMEN OF 20TH DISTRICT CONSIDER SUFFRAGE PLANS

Work of Emergency League Explained by Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout and Other Speakers—Hope for Equal Suffrage is Thru Constitutional Convention.

Women of the twentieth congressional district met at a luncheon at the Peacock Inn Friday to meet various leaders of the equal suffrage association emergency league and discuss the league's plan for work. Mrs. J. H. Danskin presided and addresses were made by Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout of Chicago, Mrs. Harrison Monroe Brown of Peoria and Carlton Ketchum of Chicago, who is assisting in the state organization work for the league. These speakers outlined some facts about the suffrage movement and explained the work that the league is now attempting. Informal remarks were made by Mayor H. J. Rodgers, Frank H. Bode, J. Edgar Martin, John J. Reeve and Rev. W. E. Spoonts. Briefly stated, the special work of the emergency league now is to make a systematic campaign of the state during the week beginning Sept. 19, to secure funds in connection with the proposed constitutional convention. Members of the equal suffrage association realize that if a constitutional convention is authorized by the voters that there must be an extensive educational compaign. It will mean the sending out of a vast amount of literature and a series of speaking tours.

Danger of Indifference.

The danger that those who are in favor of the constitutional convention see is that the proposal may be defeated by the apathy of the voters. Women cannot vote on this question but they can be just as effective as men in bringing to the people an understanding of what the constitutional convention proposal means. At the last election the proposition for the tax amendment was defeated altho a very great majority of those who voted on the proposition were in favor of it. Under the law it is necessary for the passage of such a measure to have a majority of the vote cast in the election. Therefore the several hundred thousand men who did not vote on the proposition at all, who knew nothing about it or at least were indifferent, defeated the proposal.

Mrs. Trout, who is one of the most prominent suffrage workers in the state, discussed the question in a broad way, bringing out particularly the fact that the present suffrage law in this state really embarrasses women because they are able to vote only for certain offices and often even thus far in their suffrage work have given offense to the leaders of the Republican, Democratic or Socialistic parties.

Picketing Ill Advised.

The speaker made reference to the picketing work being done by women at the national capital, crediting these women with honesty of purpose and regretting that their methods were ill advised. Altho admitting that in such a company there was no special cause for advancing arguments in favor of suffrage, Mrs. Trout referred to the fact that under existing laws a man at the polls represents only himself and that to secure the proper representation and protection for the home, that all the members of a household should have the right to express their wishes at the polls.

Mrs. Brown explained something about the organization plan of the emergency league to conduct the campaign for funds. There are six different divisions in the state and Mrs. Brown is at the head of the division which includes the seventeenth, eighteenth, nineteenth and twentieth congresional districts. Mrs. Brown appoints two division generals in each congressonal district and has named here Mrs. J. H. Danskin of Jacksonville and Mrs. Jacob D. Hess of Pittsfield. It is the work of each of these division generals to name ten brigadier generals and in turn each brigadier general will name ten captains and each of the ten captains ten lieutenants. This will mean in the district composed of the four congressional districts an organization of 11,222 women. Using the same figures with reference to the state organization this will mean about 67,000 women who during the week beginning Sept. 19 are expected to actively engage in the work of soliciting funds for the purpose mentioned above.

Emergency League Organization.

Mr. Ketchum emphasized various suffrage arguments and then explained in some detail the work which the women must do in connection with the raising of the proposed fund. There are three ways by which full suffrage rights can be obtained for women: 1, thru federal amendment; 2, by state legislative action, and 3, by an amendment to the constitution. Those most interested in the suffrage association are of practically one mind that the amendment to the state constitution affords the most likely method of securing the desired rights. The endeavor now will be to secure favorable action from the voters in calling a constitutional convention. This work does not devolve upon women alone for there are various organizations in the state which will use their best efforts to have the proposed convention called. Gov. Lowden, ex-Gov. Dunne, the state organization of both Republican and Democratic parties are strongly in favor of the convention.

Among those present at the luncheon were the following: Mrs. M. C. Petefish, Mrs. S. Gill, Mrs. Henry Hunt, Miss Bernice Hunt, and Mrs. J. J. Neiger of Virginia; Mrs. J. D. Hess, Mrs. William Shastid, Mrs. Edward Glandon, Miss Dorothy Donohoe, Miss Watson and Mrs. Ray Anderson of Pittsfield; Mrs. C. A. Johnson, Mrs. E. A. McAtee and Mrs. D. E. Akers of Barry; Miss Emma Burnett of Waverly; Dr. Lois Neville, Mrs. Louis Berger, Mrs. Eli Harshman, Mrs. George Unland, Miss Margaret Hannerman, Miss Eulah Butcher, Miss Beulah Wade, Miss Tena Kappel and Miss Effie Bennett of Meredosia.

KIDNAPED BOY FOUND IN THIS CITY

Lad Disappeared from His Home in Green County June 3, 1916—John Clow Will Face Serious Charge of Kidnapping.

June 3, 1916 Jerry Craigmile, a 12 year old boy, was kidnapped from his home seven miles east of Carrollton by John Clow. Every effort was made to locate the missing boy but to no avail until Thursday evening when Patrolman Elliott and Moore of the night police force arrested Clow and the boy at the boarding house of C. M. Decker, 328 East Court street.

When the boy disappeared his father, George Craigmile sent out descriptions broadcast but no trace could be found of him. Thursday Clow and the boy arrived in Jacksonville and had arranged with Thomas Flynn, section boss of the Chicago and Alton to go to work Friday morning.

Wednesday Sheriff Edwards of Greene conuty was in the city with a patient for Jacksonville State hospital and gave Elliott and Moore a card containing a description of the man and boy, which resulted in the arrests.

In addition to getting credit for the capture of the pair the officers will also split a melon in the shape of a reward of $100 which the boy's father offered for his apprehension.

According to the story told by Clow who worked for Craigmile, he felt sorry for the boy who, he said, was not treated well at home. When he left he took the boy with him. They have spent most of the time in Michigan and Wisconsin.

Sheriff Edwards was notified of the capture and came to the city in an automobile Friday at noon and returned with Clow and the boy. He was accompanied by George Craigmile, the boy's father.

Clow was described on the card as an ex-sailor man and bum. His age was given as 55 years. He told the local police that his age was 51 years. Kidnapping is a serious offense in this state and it is probable that Clow will receive the full penalty of the law.

LAW AIMED AT I. W. W. TO BE MADE MORE DRASTIC

Bill Introduced in Australian Parliament to Amend Unlawful Associations Act of 1916—Organization Described as a Menace.

Melbourne, Australia, Aug. 24—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Having found the Unlawful Associations Act of 1916, which was aimed at the Industrial Workers of the World, inefficient to cope with the activities of that organization the Hughes Government introduced a bill in Parliament the middle of July to make the law more drastic. Altho not officially stated, the amendment of the original law intended practically to outlaw the order of the Industrial Workers of the World was prompted by two mysterious but suspicious explosions which all but sank a steamer bound from Sydney for England just after she had left Sydney early in July.

In the belief that explosives were concealed in her hold in order to wreck her, while the vessel was loaded with cargo at Sydney, the New South Wales state government offered a reward of $10,000 for information which would lead to the convicition of the supposed conspirators.

In explaining the amending bill in the house of Representatives the Prime Minister, William M. Hughes, said there was abundant evidence that the Industrial Workers of the World organization was still very acitvely at work in Australia and the measure would enable the authorities to deal with it forthwith. Mr. Hughes described the Industrial Workers as "a menace to this and every other country".

The bill he continued, provided for six months imprisonment of whoever became a member of an unlawful association; for the deportation of other than Australian-born British subjects; for the prevention of circulation of literature of an unlawful association; and for the searching of premises suspected of being used by an unlawful association. Furthermore, any member of the federal public service who was an Industrial Worker would put out of that service.

A few days after Mr. Hughes' speech the police in Sydney made a sweeping raid on the headquarters of the Industrial Workers of the World in Australia which are in the city. They seized quanities of literature and searched about 500 men and women whom they found in or near the rooms.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

Novel Ship Undergoes Official Trial.

Haarlem, Netherlands, Aug.— A novel mother ship for submarines has just been successfully undergone its first official trial in the harbor at Amsterdam. It has been built in Holland for the Spanish navy. The vessel looks like two long narrow boats joined together, and its chief feature is a crane capable of raising objects from under the sea to a weight of 650 metric tons and from a depth of 150 feet. This strange craft is over 255 feet long and 60 feet wide. Each of the two parrallel hulls is about 18 feet wide, and between them is a space 24 feet in width over which is arranged the electrically-driven lifting apparatus for the hoisting of sunken vessels.

Apart from the crane, the ship is equipped with big workshops for the making of repairs, as well as arranged to serve as a depot ship for the Spanish submarine fleet. A cylinder filled with water, weighing about 720 tons, acted the part of a submarine in the trial just held.

Brewery Prospects Not Bright.

Amsterdam, Netherlands, Aug.— "The last stein of real beer" has been given a pathetic send-off in Munich, the city of the famous Rathskellers. According to the Munich Neueste Nachrichten, it was on a Sunday evening when the last barrel had to be broached at the palatial beer taverns. Mine host announced to his customers that this was going to be the last real pint at the old price, as the next day only small beer was to be served which would be dearer in price.

"It was a sad moment, and heavy were our hearts," says the Nachrichten, "when the last stein was lifted on high and drunk in silence."

Brewery prospects are not bright, as it is announced that for next fall a much smaller supply of barley will be available.

A COUNTY RIDE

Prof. W. H. P. Huber of the faculty of the Jacksonville high school enjoyed an extensive ride about the county yesterday. He had seen much of the prairies of old Morgan and desired to investigate the more hilly and romantic parts and accordingly set the sails of his automobile southwestward and drove through the classic retreats of Buckhorn where he was much interested in the great hills, the beautiful valleys and the gorgeous hued forests along the way. The many evidences of thrift and progress were also pleasing and he kept on till opposite Murrayville when he turned in and took a look at that thriving town. Turning eastward and northward he took in Midway and then went about through Asbury, by the Diamond Grove Baptist church and homeward much pleased with the ride and impressed with the greatness of Morgan county.

At last.—

NEW ERA IN RELATIONS OF U. S. AND JAPAN

In Spite of Germany's Efforts to Bring Discord the Two Countries are Now Virtually Allied in Common Cause—New Era Dawned in 1908.

Tokio, Aug.—(Correspondence of the associated Press)—Dawning of a new era of friendly relations between Japan and the United States was emphasized by Viscount Kikujiro Ishii, the head of the new Japanese mission to the United States in the speech he delivered at the farewell dinner tendered to him here before his departure for America.

"In spite of the indefatigable efforts of the Germans to bring discord between Japan and the United States," said Viscount Ishii, "these two countries now virtually are allied in making a common front against Germany.

"A new era in the intercourse between Japan and America first dawned when in 1908, a representative body composed of the members of the Pacific Coast Chambers of Commerce paid a visit to this country. Though not as representatives sent by the government, the party brought here a message of good will and appreciation from the American people to the Japanese nation. And the more than friendly reception which Japan accorded to the distinguished visitors may be left to the recollection of most of the gentlemen who are here this evening. This memorable visit of the American gentlemen opened up the new path of the exchange of marks of friendship and demonstrations of mutual attachment of the two peoples. Then the return visit of representative Japanese business men to the United States the exchange of lecturing professors, the organization of various associations formed with the object of promoting close relations between the two countries and other undertakings of a like nature followed without interruption. In the formation of the Japan-American society we see another fresh crystalization of genuine cordial feelings mutually entertained and no one could mistake in predicting a hopeful future for the relations between the two nations. I am exceedingly happy to see new warmth breathed by this recently started organization into the relations of mutual confidence and fraternal feeling existing between Japaese and Americans."

Professor J. T. Swift, speaking for the American community in Japan said, that Japan understands America better than America understands Japan, because in all departments of Japanese life were men who had spent their younger years in American homes and American colleges.

"For their quiet but effective efforts to make America understood in Japan, we Americans cannot be sufficiently grateful," said Professor Swift. "Such men with American experience you have in hundreds. How many men have we in America to explain and extol Japan. Almost none. America's mistakes in the past have been due to misunderstanding. The future cannot be left to chance. We must see to it that on both sides of the Pacific there are men who can see the good in the other country and tell it with strong conviction."

ACQUITTED OF COMPLICITY CHARGES

Mexico City, Aug.—Captain Adolfo Lopez Malo, a member of President Carranza's personal staff, and Miss Guadalupe Saracho have been acquitted of charges of complicity in alleged attempt on the life of Jesus Acuna former secretary of the interior and now one of the leaders of the opposition to the administrations in the house of deputies. Acuna declared that on May 19, while he was waiting for a street car in the outskirts of the city, an unknown man, after a conversation with Captain Malo, who, with Miss Saracho was riding by on horseback, fired five shots at him. No one was found who heard the shots or witnessed the allaged attempt.

JAPAN BUILDING MANY SHIPS.

Tokio, Aug.—Before the year 1917 is over the ship-yards of Japan expect to launch ninety-seven steamships with an aggregate tonnage of 400,000 tons. Thirty-one merchantmen aggregating 108,755 tons, and each exceeding 500 tons, were completed at various shipbuilding yards in Japan during the six months ending June 30 this year. Sixty-six more, representing 297,644 tons each of more than 500 tons, will be finished before the end of this year.

FOUND A SNAKE IN THE BANANAS

Yesterday morning when the Cannon-Kelly Produce Co. were handling a bunch of bananas they found something there which was not down on the invoice tho they didn't feel that they were in any way honor bound to report it to the company from whom they bought the fruit. The find was a diamond headed snake some twenty inches long and fairly active. They sent over to George Schmalz' grocery and borrowed a glass jar in which they induced his snakeship to crawl and now have him a prisoner at the grocery.

GENERAL CARTER HAS DISTINGUISHED RECORD

Veteran Officer of U. S. Army Designated to Assume Command of Central Department—Holds Honor Medal for Heroic Work.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 31.—Of the many veteran officers of the United States army who have been called from retirement during the past few months, none has a more distinguished record than Major General William H. Carter, who has been designated to assume command of the Central Department, with headquarters in this city.

General Carter is a soldier who has literally "fought his way" to high places. He is justly renowned as an organizer and an executive but it is as an Indian fighter that he is best known among the old-timers in the service. His military record is long and excellent and he holds an honor medal for heroic work—during a battle with the Apaches at Cibicou Creek, Arizona, Aug. 30, 1881, in rescuing with the voluntary assistance of two soldiers, the wounded under a heavy fire.

Born within a few miles of Nashville, Tenn., in 1851, General Carter comes of army stock. His father was a Virginian, a descendant of old "King" Carter, and accompanied the grandfather of the general from the Old Dominion to Tennessee more than a century ago, settling in Williamson county.

Graduated From West Point

Young Carter was twelve years old when it occurred to him that he would help the army of the Cumberland win the fight in 1864. He was too young to be regularly enrolled but he served as a mounted messenger, with such gallantry that he was mentioned in special orders. After the war he was appointed to West Point. Graduating in 1874, he joined the infantry at first, but the hiking game didn't appeal to a boy who had been cradled in the saddle. As soon as he could he was transferred to the cavalry.

He hadn't worn the gilt off his shoulder straps before his regiment was ordered to the Apache country, and he stayed there sixteen years. During this time he was tested by the severest kind of service and became familiar with the warfare of the Sioux, Comanche, Cheyennes, Arapahoes and Kiowas. From continuous work in Indian Territory and Kansas he went with his command into Arizona. Here it was that he was destined to perform the act that gave him the much-coveted medal of honor. It was at Cibicou Creek that a handful of Uncle Sam's cavalrymen faced a horde of Indians and had fought them desperately all through the hot Arizona day. Many men were wounded and had fallen in the open when the troopers were forced temporarily to retreat. The stricken soldiers lying exposed made fair marks for the rifles of the red skins.

Faced Death in Rescue Work

Lieutenant Carter and two privates ran forward and lifting the wounded men one after another, bore them back to shelter. Several trips were necessary before the work was done, and though its doing seemed to be certain death, the officer and the two men escaper with their lives and later were given the medals of honor which Congress votes to the soldiers of the American army who perform deeds of daring in the face of the enemy.

In 1898 Carter became a lieutenant colonel and participated in the Santiago campaign. In 1902 he was promoted to colonel, and later in the same year was appointed brigadier general by the president. Soon afterwards he was sent to the Philippines to command the Department of Luzon. It was while he was there in 1906, that a bundle of Moros undertook to kill, burn, cut up and othewise destroy the soldiers in their vicinity. That was the battle of the crater at Mount Dajo. When it was all over there were no more Moros. Perhaps the Moros had all sorts of ethical and moral reasons for running amuck. But, as General Carter pointed out: "If they won't keep peace alive they must keep it dead. I have my orders."

As a "man of peace" General Carter had charge of much of the important work necessary in preparing the legislation for the Root re-organization of the army, as well as being assigned to prepare various schemes for training young officers in their professional work. When General Wood was chief of staff, General Carter was his first assistant. He also served as a member of the War College Board. In 1911, at the beginning of the Mexican disturbances, General Carter was selected to command the regular army troops mobilized along the north bank of the Rio Grande. Later he was given command of the Central Department, to which post he has now been reappointed in succession to Major General Thimas H. Barry.

JURY RETURNS VERDICT IN DEATH OF DAVID CHAMBERS

Coroner Charles A. Rose was in Meradosia Friday and empanelled a jury to inquire into the death of David Chambers who died suddenly about 9 o'clock Thursday night. The testimony of Dr. F. A. Nevill who was attending Chambers and that of Lucinda Chambers was heard.

Dr. Neville testified that he had examined Mr. Chambers and found him suffering from Bright's disease and leakage of the heart. He gave as his opinion that death was caused by uraemic poisoning induced by Bright's disease. The testimony of Mrs. Chambers told of hearing the deceased choking. She hastened to his room and he was nearly dead and passed away before medical aid could be summoned.

After hearing the evidence the jury which was composed of H. D. Berger, foreman, Charles Winningham, A. M. Waldo, John Davis, Luther Cline and A. J. Patrick clerk returned a verdict that Mr. Chambers came to his death by Uraemic poisoning superinduced by Bright's disease.

OFFICER HE'S IN AGAIN.

Officer he's in again. Who? Our old friend Bart Gougherty. For some time Mr. Gougherty has been serving a sentence for vagrancy in the county jail. Recently he took advantage of Sheriff Graff who gave him trusty privileges and left without leaving any forwarding address for his mail. Thursday he was picked up by the police in an intoxicated condition and probably will go back to board again at Hotel De Graff for an indefinite period.

NO FIRES IN AUGUST.

Chief Hunt said yesterday that so far as fires were concerned the members of the fire department might just as well have taken a vation during August. There was not a single alarm in the entire month. Only one alarm was received in July. One alarm in over sixty days is probably a record in the local department and helps to offset some of the strenuous months in the first of the year and balance the yearly average.

WILL JOIN THE ROYAL AVIATION CORPS

A Denver paper states that Jerry C. Vasconcellos, former student, has gone to Toronto to enlist in the Royal Aviation corps. The young gentleman is well known in Denver. He attended Dartmouth College in 1912 and later entered the law department of the Denver university. He graduated in 1916 and entered the law firm of Owen and Clark. Six months ago he accepted a position in the legal and buying department of Bosworth, Chanute & Co. In May he went to Fort Riley to enter the battery reserve training camp and just recently received word that he had passed examination for the Royal Aviation Corps.

The young gentleman's mother was formerly Miss Annie Dunbrack of this city and he was reared in Lyons, Kansas. His uncle is janitor of the Hockenhull building on the east side of the square. Altho Chicago won its game today they lost half a game in the pennant race to Boston, who won a double header from Philadelphia. Chicago, however, still leads by 4 1-2 games.

INTERESTING NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

(By Associated Press.)

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. — Reconstruction of the Kansas City club of the American Association with young players is the plan of Manager John Ganzel, who is keenly disappointed with the showing of the team this season. It was the first time in years that Ganzel has piloted a loser. He has won pennants in at least two leagues, giving Rochester of the International league several in a row.

Ganzel believes that young players will give the club speed. He has several deals on the fire, some of which may materialize before the close of the present season, and others during the winter months. Several of the veterans on the club probably will be dropped in an effort to develop a speedier club. This is one of the reasons for the release of Jack Lelicelt, a .300 hitter.

"I'll admit that Lelivet is a valuable batter," Ganzel explained, "but he was not fast on the bases; neither did he cover enough ground in the outfield. I am going after fast youngsters with the hope of building a winner for the 1918 season. I presume, of course, that the American Association will open its season as usual unless the war situation becomes too critical."

When the season opened, Ganzel considered his team strong contender for the pennant. The fact that it set a record for the association by winning fifteen games in a row shows that Ganzel had constructed a powerful team, but injuries to several of the players sapped its strength.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. — Officials of the St. Louis Americans are determined to stamp out gambling in Sportsman's Park. Bobby Quinn, business manager of the club, started the crusade by ejecting a spectator charged with gambling and refunding his admission.

Spectators will not be permitted to stand at the rear of the grand stand as this practice, it is said, is conducive to open betting. The recent investigation of gambling conditions in Boston by President Johnson of the American league is believed to have increased the vigilance in other parks.

St. Paul, Aug. — For the first time in his career, Mike Gibbons, the St. Paul middleweight, has engaged a trainer, Barney Furey, who has conditioned Ad Wolgast, Stanley Ketchell, Billy Papke and other famous ring stars, will train Mike and his brother, Tommy. Furey, a negro was with Wolgast until the former lightweight champion suffered a nervous collapse.

Chicago, Aug. — Word was received here recently that "Germany" Schaefer, the former "gloom killer" of the American League, who has been scouting for the New York Nationals, has re-entered the ranks as an active player. Schaefer has signed a contract with his old friend Mike Doolan who is manager of the Rochester club. Right after Schaefer signed his contract he jumped into the game, played second base and made three hits.

Columbus, O., Aug. — Ohio State University probably will have a football team this season, tho for a time the outlook was dubious. Coach Mark Banks who has been at Athens, Ohio, has told friends that he did not intend to make any further attempt to enter the military service, and expected to head athletics at Ohio in 1917-18. Banks tried his duck at the first camp at Fort Benjamin Harrison but after a few weeks he was dismissed because of a football injury received some years ago.

Out of about 30 men upon whom Banks was figuring as material for another championship eleven, only about 10 remain in school. The others have each entered some branch of the government service.

Joplin, Mo., Aug. — Mike Giltner, who has been playing baseball on the local Western league team, expects to study military tactics at the second officers' training camp. Giltner played end on the Missouri football team and was noted as a pitcher and slugger on the baseball nine.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. — The local Nationals have purchased two pitchers from the Little Rock club of the Southern association. They are Robinson and Tincup. Robinson at one time played with the St. Louis Nationals, while Tincup, who is a full-blooded Indian was a member of the Philadelphia Nationals. Robinson has a record of allowing 2.06 earned runs in 35 games, while Tincup in 24 games permitted 2.22 earned runs per game.

Fort Snelling, Minn., Aug. — The football season got under way here several days ago. Eight games were played simultaneously on the parade ground by teams made up of students in the first officers' reserve camp. Famous athletes from several of the leading colleges took part. Only one company was able to score a touchdown, and this was Company 4, which had Ossie Solem and Paul Tobin, former stars of the Minnesota eleven, in the lineup. Others who were members of this company were Floyd Thomas, Fred Becker and Hugh Rosson of the Hawkeyes; Ellsworth Moser, Nebraska center and Conme of St. Thomas.

ILLINOIS ATHLETIC CLUB WINS TRACK MEET

Carry Off Junior Events in Twenty Ninth Annual Championship Meet of Amateur Athletic Union With 44 Points

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 31—The Illinois Athletic club won the junior events in the Twenty Ninth Annual Championship meet of the Amateur Athletic Union here today by scoring 44 points. The Meadowbrook Athletic club, Philadelphia, was second with a score of thirty. The old record of ten seconds in the 100-yard dash was equalled.

The championships were held at Francis Field, the athletic ground of Washington University. The proceeds went to the Red Cross.

The first junior record to fall was the pole vault, E. Knourek, of the Illinois Athletic club, Chicago, in trying for the old mark of twelve feet, 5:64 inches, set a new one of 12 feet, 5.75 inches.

The next record to go down was that of the 120-yard high hurdler. Harold Barron, of the Meadowbrook Athletic club, Philadelphia, made the distance in 15 2-5 seconds.

F. J. Shea, of Pittsbunrgh Athletic club, ran the 440-yard dash in fifty seconds, also setting a new junior mark; and the final new record was set by Charles Siebert, of the Chicago Turgemeindere, who made a running high jump of 6 feet one inch.

For the first time in the history of the Amateur Athletic union, a negro won an event today, when E. F. Jones, of Alpha P. C. C., N. Y., took first place in the running broad jump. In the mile run, John Mohon, of the Missouri Athletic association, St. Louis, collapsed during the last lap.

WISCONSIN COLLEGES HAVE STRONG ELEVENS

Madison, Wis., Sept. 1.—Despite the fact that the great European war has made inroads on the gridiron talent on most of the big colleges, the University of Wisconsin expects to have as strong an eleven this season as it has had in three years. Many of the players upon whom Tom Jones, director of athletics, depended for building a winner this fall are in some branch of the government service but the reserve talent is unusually good. Jones recently conferred with John Richards, who said he would return to Wisconsin to coach the eleven. He said he was anxious to return to the game after an absence of six years.

Ray Caldwell playing center field for the Yankees isn't such a bad bet at that. Donovan's incorrigible pitcher can play the job and is some swatter with the stick.

CORN SHOWS ADVANCE CLOSING NEAR TOP

Cash Strength Important Factor—Traders Regard Government Wheat Price of Bulling Influence

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Corn advanced in price today, the increase beginning with initial sales and continuing without interruption thru the session closing near the top. Cash strength was an important factor and some traders regarded the government wheat price announced today of a bulling influence. The close was strong 2 to 2⅞ cents higher with December at $1.12 to $1.12¼ and May $1.08⅝ to $1.08⅞. Oats closed 1¾ to 1⅝c higher. Provisions finished the day with moderate gains.

In the corn pit some of the strength was attributed to private predictions of frost altho the official forecast indicated generally warmer temperatures. Cash corn sold from 5 to 9 cents higher. Receipts of corn were light and local sales aggregated 15,000 bushels. Buying and selling of wheat will be in the hands of the local food administrator tomorrow. The new differentials fixed by the government commission on wheat did not meet the approval of the Chicago Board of Trade and the directors of the board protested against them on the ground that they were unjust and would work against Chicago and prevent grain from reaching this market.

Oats showed strength thruout the session impressive covering by shorts who were anxious to protect their September lines was a marked feature of the day. The strength of corn was also a controlling factor in extremely light offerings contributed to the advances. Cash sales aggregated 300,000 bushels.

The increases in provisions were moderate with lard and ribs the most active products.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW OF TRADE CONDITIONS

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Governmental buying, moderate expansion in regular fall business, light retail trade at the east, exceptionally good crop reports, activity in industry, liquidation in the stock market, induced by concern over the excess profits tax and unanimity of opinion respecting the expected large proportions of fall trade stand out as the prominent features of present trade conditions.

In the larger sense war demands concededly dwarf ordinary commercial business perhaps to a greater extent than at any time in the past three years, but progress in normal channels is seen now that the fall season is close at hand. House trade in the larger staple lines has expanded in a conservative way.

Retail trade ranges from fair to good.

IMPORTANT STOCKS LOSE 2 TO 4 POINTS

First Half Day's Active Market Session Witnesses a Repetition of Recent Liquidation.

New York, Aug. 31.—The first half of today's active stock market session witnessed a repetition of the recent liquidation, important stocks losing 2 to 4 points. The movement was without any semblance of demoralization, but with all signs of support.

During the mid-session rallies of 1 to 3 points were registered chiefly in equipments, shipping and specialties, but the list became unsettled again at the close. For the most part losses were materially reduced and in a few instances altogether wiped out. U. S. Steel being the most noteworthy exception.

Steel was at all times the outstanding feature by reason of its enormous turnover which aggregated about one third of the day's business closing at 109½, a net loss of 2½ points for the day.

Shippings felt the force of repeated bear drives, Atlantic Gulf and West Indies losing six points, but recovering in part with marines. Reading proved the conspicuous exception among the heavy rails, losing only a slight fraction. Total sales amounted to 910,000 shares. Bonds were heavier. Liberty 3½s varied from 99.90 to 99.96. Total sales, par value, aggregated $3,600,000.

INTERESTING NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

(By Associated Press.)

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. — Reconstruction of the Kansas City club of the American Association with young players is the plan of Manager John Ganzel, who is keenly disappointed with the showing of the team this season. It was the first time in years that Ganzel has piloted a loser. He has won pennants in at least two leagues, giving Rochester of the International league several in a row.

Ganzel believes that young players will give the club speed. He has several deals on the fire, some of which may materialize before the close of the present season, and others during the winter months. Several of the veterans on the club probably will be dropped in an effort to develop a speedier club. This is one of the reasons for the release of Jack Lelicelt, a .300 hitter.

"I'll admit that Lelivet is a valuable batter," Ganzel explained, "but he was not fast on the bases; neither did he cover enough ground in the outfield. I am going after fast youngsters with the hope of building a winner for the 1918 season. I presume, of course, that the American Association will open its season as usual unless the war situation becomes too critical."

When the season opened, Ganzel considered his team strong contender for the pennant. The fact that it set a record for the association by winning fifteen games in a row shows that Ganzel had constructed a powerful team, but injuries to several of the players sapped its strength.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. — Officials of the St. Louis Americans are determined to stamp out gambling in Sportsman's Park. Bobby Quinn, business manager of the club, started the crusade by ejecting a spectator charged with gambling and refunding his admission.

Spectators will not be permitted to stand at the rear of the grand stand as this practice, it is said, is conducive to open betting. The recent investigation of gambling conditions in Boston by President Johnson of the American league is believed to have increased the vigilance in other parks.

St. Paul, Aug. — For the first time in his career, Mike Gibbons, the St. Paul middleweight, has engaged a trainer, Barney Furey, who has conditioned Ad Wolgast, Stanley Ketchell, Billy Papke and other famous ring stars, will train Mike and his brother, Tommy. Furey, a negro was with Wolgast until the former lightweight champion suffered a nervous collapse.

Chicago, Aug. — Word was received here recently that "Germany" Schaefer, the former "gloom killer" of the American League, who has been scouting for the New York Nationals, has re-entered the ranks as an active player. Schaefer has signed a contract with his old friend Mike Doolan who is manager of the Rochester club. Right after Schaefer signed his contract he jumped into the game, played second base and made three hits.

Columbus, O., Aug. — Ohio State University probably will have a football team this season, tho for a time the outlook was dubious. Coach Mark Banks who has been at Athens, Ohio, has told friends that he did not intend to make any further attempt to enter the military service, and expected to head athletics at Ohio in 1917-18. Banks tried his duck at the first camp at Fort Benjamin Harrison but after a few weeks he was dismissed because of a football injury received some years ago.

Out of about 30 men upon whom Banks was figuring as material for another championship eleven, only about 10 remain in school. The others have each entered some branch of the government service.

Joplin, Mo., Aug. — Mike Giltner, who has been playing baseball on the local Western league team, expects to study military tactics at the second officers' training camp. Giltner played end on the Missouri football team and was noted as a pitcher and slugger on the baseball nine.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. — The local Nationals have purchased two pitchers from the Little Rock club of the Southern association. They are Robinson and Tincup. Robinson at one time played with the St. Louis Nationals, while Tincup, who is a full-blooded Indian was a member of the Philadelphia Nationals. Robinson has a record of allowing 2.06 earned runs in 35 games, while Tincup in 24 games permitted 2.22 earned runs per game.

Fort Snelling, Minn., Aug. — The football season got under way here several days ago. Eight games were played simultaneously on the parade ground by teams made up of students in the first officers' reserve camp. Famous athletes from several of the leading colleges took part. Only one company was able to score a touchdown, and this was Company 4, which had Ossie Solem and Paul Tobin, former stars of the Minnesota eleven, in the lineup. Others who were members of this company were Floyd Thomas, Fred Becker and Hugh Rosson of the Hawkeyes; Ellsworth Moser, Nebraska center and Conme of St. Thomas.

WISCONSIN COLLEGES HAVE STRONG ELEVENS

Madison, Wis., Sept. 1.—Despite the fact that the great European war has made inroads on the gridiron talent on most of the big colleges, the University of Wisconsin expects to have as strong an eleven this season as it has had in three years. Many of the players upon whom Tom Jones, director of athletics, depended for building a winner this fall are in some branch of the government service but the reserve talent is unusually good. Jones recently conferred with John Richards, who said he would return to Wisconsin to coach the eleven. He said he was anxious to return to the game after an absence of six years.

Ray Caldwell playing center field for the Yankees isn't such a bad bet at that. Donovan's incorrigible pitcher can play the job and is some swatter with the stick.

CORN SHOWS ADVANCE CLOSING NEAR TOP

Cash Strength Important Factor—Traders Regard Government Wheat Price of Bulling Influence

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Corn advanced in price today, the increase beginning with initial sales and continuing without interruption thru the session closing near the top. Cash strength was an important factor and some traders regarded the government wheat price announced today of a bulling influence. The close was strong 2 to 2⅞ cents higher with December at $1.12 to $1.12¼ and May $1.08⅝ to $1.08⅞. Oats closed 1¼ to 1⅝c higher. Provisions finished the day with moderate gains.

In the corn pit some of the strength was attributed to private predictions of frost altho the official forecast indicated generally warmer temperatures. Cash corn sold from 5 to 9 cents higher. Receipts of corn were light and local sales aggregated 15,000 bushels. Buying and selling of wheat will be in the hands of the local food administrator tomorrow. The new differentials fixed by the government commission on wheat did not meet the approval of the Chicago Board of Trade and the directors of the board protested against them on the ground that they were unjust and would work against Chicago and prevent grain from reaching this market.

Oats showed strength thruout the session impressive covering by shorts who were anxious to protect their September lines was a marked feature of the day. The strength of corn was also a controlling factor in extremely light offerings contributed to the advances. Cash sales aggregated 300,000 bushels.

The increases in provisions were moderate with lard and ribs the most active products.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW OF TRADE CONDITIONS

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Governmental buying, moderate expansion in regular fall business, light retail trade at the east, exceptionally good crop reports, activity in industry, liquidation in the stock market, induced by concern over the excess profits tax and unanimity of opinion respecting the expected large proportions of fall trade stand out as the prominent features of present trade conditions.

In the larger sense war demands concededly dwarf ordinary commercial business perhaps to a greater extent than at any time in the past three years, but progress in normal channels is seen now that the fall season is close at hand. House trade in the larger staple lines has expanded in a conservative way.

Retail trade ranges from fair to good.

IMPORTANT STOCKS LOSE 2 TO 4 POINTS

First Half Day's Active Market Session Witnesses a Repetition of Recent Liquidation.

New York, Aug. 31.—The first half of today's active stock market session witnessed a repetition of the recent liquidation, important stocks losing 2 to 4 points. The movement was without any semblance of demoralization, but with all signs of support.

During the mid-session rallies of 1 to 3 points were registered chiefly in equipments, shipping and specialties, but the list became unsettled again at the close. For the most part losses were materially reduced and in a few instances altogether wiped out. U. S. Steel being the most noteworthy exception.

Steel was at all times the outstanding feature by reason of its enormous turnover which aggregated about one third of the day's business closing at 109½, a net loss of 2½ points for the day.

Shippings felt the force of repeated bear drives, Atlantic Gulf and West Indies losing six points, but recovering in part with marines. Reading proved the conspicuous exception among the heavy rails, losing only a slight fraction. Total sales amounted to 910,000 shares. Bonds were heavier. Liberty 3½s varied from 99.90 to 99.96. Total sales, par value, aggregated $3,600,000.

STOMACH TORN UP

Indiana Lady Describes Condition, Which She Says Was Due To Constipation and Tells of Relief Obtained From Black-Draught.

Scottsburg, Ind.—Mrs. Annie Johnson, of this place, writes: "I well remember I suffered for a long time with constipation, which would get me down. I took doctors' medicines and any number of purgatives. They would leave me in a worse condition than I was before taking, and my stomach so upset . . . I know once I suffered . . . from constipation, I was so ill we had to have the doctor, just so nervous and feverish. The doctor said I would have to quit medicines, my stomach was so bad . . .

My husband was reading and found something about Thedford's Black-Draught and brought me a package to try. I used it regularly at first until I began to feel better, then I used just a dose occasionally. I was cured of this constipation and am sure the Black-Draught did it."

If your stomach is out of order, you will suffer from such disagreeable symptoms as headache, biliousness, indigestion, etc., and unless something is done, serious trouble may result.

Thedford's Black-Draught has been found a valuable remedy for these troubles. It is purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way, helping to regulate the liver and to cleanse the bowels of impurities.

Try Black-Draught. EB-15

FIGHT FOR YOUR LIFE

Duty Demands Robust Health

Fight to get it and keep it

Fight—fight day in and day out to prevent being overtaken by ills and ails. Keep wrinkles from marring the cheek and the body from losing its youthful appearance and buoyancy. Fight when ill-health is coming with its pallor and pains, defects and declining powers. Fight to stay its course and drive it off.

But fight intelligently. Don't fight without weapons that can win the day for without the intelligent use of effective weapons the pallor spreads and weakness grows and a seemingly strong man or woman ofttimes becomes a pray to ills after all.

You will not find this class of persons in the hypoferrin ranks. No unhealthy, dull, draggy, droopy persons in that line. It is a hale, hearty, robust aggregation of quick-steppers who view life in a joyous frame of mind and are mentally and physically equal to any emergency. Hypoferrin stands for sound body and sound mind—it is the invigorating tonic of the times—powerful and unsurpassed as a health restorer, vitalizer and health preserver. Fight to hold the vigor of a sound body with hypoferrin or to stay the process of decay and restore health and strength—you win. This tonic of amazing, wonder-working properties has been approved by physicians as a restorer and safeguard of health. It is a thoroughly scientific preparation of the very elements necessary to tone up the stomach and nerves, to build strong, vital tissue, make pure blood, firm flesh and solid, active, tireless muscles.

Hypoferrin contains those mighty strength-producing agents, lecithin-and-iron peptonate, in a form best adapted to benefit the body and its organs. Its ingredients are absolutely necessary to the blood. In nine cases out of ten a run-down condition, sallow, pale complexions that "all in" feeling and frail bodies are due to lack of lecithin-and-iron peptonate in the system.

Your mental and physical strength and endurance depends upon a lecithin-and-iron peptonate laden blood; steady, dependable nerves and a healthy stomach. With these you can meet life at any angle.

This wonder tonic, hypoferrin, which is as perfect as science can get to nature, meets every essential demand of the human organism. It is safe and sure and a boon to run-down, worn-out men and women. Hypoferrin means nature's own way of bringing color to the cheeks, strength to the body and keeping the vigor and buoyancy of youth. The powder and paint way of effecting beauty is not needed by hypoferrin women and girls. Their blood, filled with nature's beauty stores, creates conditions that give firmness and grace to the body and the glow of health to the cheeks.

No need of going through life sickly and always feeling miserable in this age of medical science. Join the hypoferrin ranks. It puts into you the springy snap and vigor you ought to have and puts life into your body and mind that inspires the confidence that you confront the world on an equal footing with anyone.

Hypoferrin may be had at your druggist's or direct from us for $1.00 per package. It is well worth the price. The Hentanel Remedies Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

MORTALITY RATE IS HIGH AMONG HORSES

Animals Purchased for Military Purposes Succumb to Neglect, Ignorant Horsemanship and Ill-Treatment—Trifling Percentage of the Deaths Due to Enemy Action.

London, Aug. — (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—"I have lately come into possession of authentic information on the waste of horseflesh," writes the editor of Truth, "and it is calculated to excite the greatest horror and indignation."

Leaving out Mesotopamia and Africa outside Egypt, he writes that more than 250,900 horses have died during the war up to about the end of May and in addition 30,000 have been sold owing to old age and disease. He continues:

"The most significant fact of all is that 33,000 animals have died in America while awaiting shipment, while 6,000 have died at sea in the course of transit. Here we have 39,000 animals purchased for military purposes, not one of which has been available for that purpose owing to their previous disease. In this is presumably to be found the explanation of the greater part of the scandal—namely, the culpable negligence, or worse, with which the animals have been bought.

"I am told that some which have survived the Atlantic voyage were found to be over thirty years old. Some are even said to have died upon the gangway at the port of shipment under the exertion of walking aboard. It may almost be taken for granted that the rate of mortality on this side of the Atlantic has been aggravated by neglect, ignorant horsemanship and to some extent downright ill-treatment. On all these points men who have served at the front can give evidence. I have myself heard many lurid statements on the subject. But the figures show that the root of the whole scandal lies across the Atlantic, where the wretched beasts are bought."

Upward of 1,000,000 horses and mules the writer says, have been purchased by the British government during the war, so that more than 25 percent of the animals have died. With regard to deaths of horses or mules, due to "enemy action," he says that in one week, out of more than 5,000 deaths in France, only 118 were due to gunshot wounds—a trifling percentage. About 42,000 of the animals have died in England.

BIRTHDAY OF WILHELMINA

The Hague, Aug. 31—The birthday anniversary of Queen Wilhelmina was celebrated thruout the kingdom today, tho the joyous festivities and gay decorations of the years before the war were lacking. The great conflict has entailed many hardships on the Netherlands and its people and no small share of the burden has been borne by the Dutch Queen. Prince Henry, consort of the Queen, is a German by birth and sympathies, which fact has not helped to elevate him in the esteem of many of the Hollanders. During the past three years Prince Henry has found it convenient to spend much time in Switzerland or elsewhere outside the Dutch dominion. Her majesty resides the most of the time at the royal country seat at Het Loo, with occasional short visits with the little Princess Juliana at Katwyk, a quiet little seaside place only a short ride from the Hague.

ILLINOIS MINES MAY PRODUCE PYRITE

By-Product of Coal Is Now In Demand According To University Bulletin.

Owners of coal mines, according to a circular just issued by the University of Illinois, have an opportunity to increase their revenues by producing pyrite, a coal by-product, which is now valuable. This bulletin from the engineering experiment station says:

"In many bituminous coal mines in the United States, especially in the central western field, a mineral impurity known as pyrite occurs with the coal. The amount of this impurity varies from one to ten per cent of the coal as mined, and it is estimated that mining operations in Illinois alone yield approximately a million tons per annum.

"Pyrite is one of the sources from which sulphuric acid is obtained and sulphuric acid is used extensively in the manufacture of explosives and fertilizers. Normally the demand in the United States is met by importations of pyrite from Spain, and the market for domestic pyrite is not regarded as sufficiently large to justify its recovery in coal mining operations. It is, therefore, discarded as useless.

"Under present conditions the supply of Spanish pyrite has been cut off owing to the high cost of ocean transportation, while the demand has increased. The market is active, and prices as high as $8.00 per ton are offered.

"The Engineering Experiment Station of the University of Illinois has just completed a series of experiments, conducted on a commercial scale under the direction of Professor E. A. Holbrook of the department of Mining Engineering, to develop a simple process for the economic recovery of pyrite occurring with bituminous coal. As a result of these experiments, it has been possible to prepare estimates which indicate that a 50-ton per day plan costing approximately -18,000 may be designed which will yield a profit under present conditions of $75.00 per day, or $1.50 per ton of raw pyrite. The possible commercial use of these results at the present time by the coal mining industry is suggested in Circular No. 5 of the Engineering Experiment Station, which publication also contains a discussion of the composition of the mineral, a review of market conditions, a description of the machinery required, and a statement of the methods of operations to be employed. The circular is illustrated with charts and photographs, and also with drawings showing suggested plant arrangements.

ELEVATED MIRRORS ABOLISHED

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 31—Today saw the removal of the last mirrors from the elevators in California. No more will the lady passenger be able to see that her "makeup" is en regle, or place her hat at the proper angle, or give a last squint and pull at her veil. The mirrors have been abolished by order of the State Accident Commission. Investigation convinced the commission that the mirrors were the cause of many injuries, resulting from flying glass when the car fell or was jarred by the sudden application of the safety-clutch. Other accidents have been caused by the women passengers pausing before the mirror to give themselves the visual "once over," when they should have been watching their step in emerging from the car.

Mrs. C. W. Phelps of Literberry was among the shoppers in the city yesterday.
